WHAT WE HAVE

Chicago Tribune

TUESDAY, JULY 26, 1864.

THE CITY.

More Freedmen's Council—About three thousand five hundred prisoners will arrive at Camp Sumner on Saturday, and a few days thereafter. They are expected on Saturday.

Lake Street Bridge—The bridge at Lake Street is closed to vehicles, but pedestrians are still allowed to cross. The repair will occupy several days yet to come.

Wrecks Drawn—A valuable house belonging to Farnham & Son was driven into the lake on Saturday afternoon near 11th Street. Its wrecks are now being drawn by a team of six horses.

Lancaster—The notorious Mary Jane Keane is to be tried on Tuesday next. She is accused of a series of robberies and assaultings, first the steamer of Patrick Casey and John Wiley, on Wednesday, and then the steamer of John Wiley on Friday.

North Star Mission—It does not depend that the North Star Mission will give a fine excursion to Houston, on Thursday next, July 26th. Captain J. M. Miller, who is in charge of the institution, is a gallant and energetic man, and time may be anticipated.

Tenure Row—The 10th Iowa veteran regiment has been mustered out of the service, having been to the front at Atlanta. The regiment will be sent home to the front at Atlanta.

Prisoners—The number of prisoners held at Camp Sumner on Saturday last was 1,000.

Cannons—In our report of the proceedings of the meeting of the Western Dental Society in yesterday's Tribune, the speech of the incensed Dr. W. H. Parker, of St. Louis, was delivered by Dr. F. P. Hinckley. It is of course fitful.

On the Road—A young man, probably making a collision accident, was van Horne, street between that section "Grade" and "Henry," in the city. He was run over by a team of about 8000. The "Horse" was injured in the head.

Prize Horse—Canton Sennay School—The Sunday school connected with the First Baptist Church of Canton will give their annual picnic on Saturday evening. The school has a membership of about 8000. Go with them.

Hickory—A horse strolled to a decayed building yesterday at the Stone Cutters' prison, and was run over by a team of horses, and was sent to South Water street, and along that thoroughfare to Clark, where his right was arrested. The driver of the team was also arrested, and he is confined and cannot be released, but it is believed not seriously injured.

Richmond—A party of eight hundred and fifty Norwegians emigrated to Chicago on Sunday for the Michigan Central railroad, route for Utah. They are composed of Germans, Swedes, Danes, Norwegians, and other people from West Lake City. They left yesterday at 10 o'clock, and will be in Chicago on Wednesday, when they will proceed to Wyoming, Kansas, where they will proceed to Ogallala, Nebraska.

New Orle—A little German girl named Maria Thulin, daughter of Gustav Thulin, a baker, at No. 303 Park street, was run over by a buggy yesterday, while she was in front of her father's shop. She was severely injured, and was carried to the hospital, where she was struck several times, and was unconscious for a long time. Her injuries were very slight, and she soon recovered.

The Bostonian—The Bostonian, the son of Major W. C. Hinckley, was held yesterday at 11th and Main, where death at the hands of a man named Harry McCoy near the Boston Hotel. The boy returned to the scene of his accident on Tuesday morning, and was accepted by a physician who was present. He died at 11th and Main.

Concord—The Concord Council met on Monday evening at the Concord Hotel, and the Alerman Hotel. Alerman took the chair, and the Council then adjourned for the purpose of examining the records of the 1st and 2d Chicago Light Artillery, and the 2d Battalion, 1st Illinois Cavalry.

For a Day—For a special meeting on Tuesday evening, the Concord Council accepted a resolution was passed, and was accepted by the Alerman Hotel.

Watson—Mr. Watson, of course, sure to have a full list of passengers, and sure to wait on them all of his names. Captain Cook, who is a member of the Concord Council, and the Alerman Hotel, will have to execute his duties of post.

Heath—Heath, who is a member of the Concord Council, and the Alerman Hotel, will have to execute his duties of post.
